Code of Conduct:

Continued participation in this program is subject to satisfactory standards of conduct being maintained. Program policy prohibits intoxication or possession of intoxicants, possession of knives or other weapons, sexual misconduct, use or possession of illegal drugs, stealing, smoking, disorderly conduct, violence, malicious destruction of property, or refusal to cooperate with program leaders. Participants found to have wilfully damaged program equipment will be asked to reimburse the cost of replacement or repairs. Failure to uphold the rules of this program will be grounds for dismissal. If such should occur, the participant involved will be sent home at his/her parent's/own expense. Dismissal is very rare and we hope this will prove to be totally unnecessary.

In addition, SEP includes the following code of conduct:

- Christian standards will be maintained and encouraged including:
 - respect for the opposite sex and no sexual misconduct
 - respect for each other – no abuse/bullying, practical jokes or foul-language
 - respect for staff members – co-operation with dorm and activity leaders

These standards also apply to campers' internet use and online activity for the duration of camp

- Except during an organised discussion group, female dormitories are out of bounds to all males and vice versa
- No camper may leave the camp without the consent and knowledge of the camp director
- Lights must be left off in the dormitories after the specified "lights out" – be considerate!
- Everyone must attend breakfast and be on time
- Attendance at all sessions is compulsory unless other wise stated.
